pecial to the Indianapolis Journal. WASHINGTON, July 29 .- There is said to be on foot a project so bold and audacious that only the desperate determination of the Democratic managers to win the election next fall by any means, fair or foul, project is said to be nothing else than to force Mr. Thomas Watson, of Georgia, off the Populist ticket. Senator Allen, of Nebraska, the foremost Populist in the party, affairs. is said to have conceived this scheme, and to have found in Senator Jones, of Arkansas, the leader of the Democratic campaign, and Senator Jones, of Nevada, the brainiest and most energetic man in the silver party, able and willing allies. During the Populist convention in St. Louis last week Senator Jones, of Arkansas, the the scene and was in uninterrupted communication with Senator Allen, of Nebraska. Mr. Jones, of Nevada, was also present, attending either the silver convention or seated among the distinguished guests on the platform of the Populist convention. The three Senators worked hand in hand. Their purpose was to secure fusion between the three parties and the indorsement of the Democratic ticket by both the silver men and the Populists. Senator Jones, of Nevada, carried out his part of the programme, and the silver party indorsed Bry-$2.25 per Dozen. an and Sewall. Senator Allen succeeded only partially. Mr. Bryan was nominated, but even the influence of the Nebraska Senator was powerless to force the Maine millionaire and national bank president down the throats of the Populists, and so the combination was defeated in the Populist convention. It was an easy matter, however, to deceive, by parliamentary trickery, the ignorant delegates who attended that remarkable convention. To these people parliamentary law was an unknown tongue, and it was, therefore, not difficult for Messrs. Jones and Allen, whose experience in the United States Senate. aided, perhaps, by shrewd counsel from distinguished Democrats, who were not in Chicago during the convention, to devise a scheme by which the plan of making the Populist ticket Bryan and Sewall, instead of Bryan and Watson, might yet be carried out. In the closing moments of the convention, when those delegates who were MURDER AND OUTRAGE not indulging in fisticuffs were putting on their shoes and coats preparatory to leaving, an innocent resolution was introduced, authorizing the executive committee to fill OF ANOTHER NEGRO vacancies. Senator Allen, who was presiding, changed the verbiage of this motion so that it authorized the committee, on the dissolution of the convention, to exercise plenary powers and to do all things that James Smith, a Trusted Servant, Asthe convention might do if in session. Before another delegate could have protested. discover the hidden purpose, Mr. Allen declared the motion carried. WASHINGTON, July 29 .- A coroner's to bring pressure to bear upon Mr. Watson jury to-day found James Smith, the negro to resign from the ticket. even if he had been shrewd enough to The purpose of this resolution now be comes apparent. It was intended at first views with that gentleman would seem to indicate that he has no such intention. His three conspirators as being simply impossible, and his presence on the ticket would make the Populist campaign ridiculous, therefore if it cannot be done by persuaheld that the Populist convention gave to ion, is for the best interests of the Populist party. They will hold that Mr. Watson's withdrawal is imperative, and will therefore officially promulgate the ticket of the Populist party to be Bryan and ple of Prince George's county, probably Sewall. They know that there will be a howl from the South, but this is a matter of indifference to them. The solid South can be relied upon for the Democratic ticket, by hook or crook, and no questions asked. Senator Allen himself knows from his efforts all last year to bring about an investigation into the methods by which Chicago Sleeper at west end Union Station, ready | der. In his first confession he said that | the Democrats in Alabama carried the he had been intimate with the murdered ticket against the fusion of the Populists and Republicans that, even if questions are asked, they will not be answered. The Western Populists are the votes for which 'combine" is planning, and in the West Mr. Sewall, in spite of his millions and his national bank relations, is much stronger than Watson. To Mr. Allen will be intrusted the practical execution of the scheme. He is an able man, full of determination, and if he finds that it is safe to perpetrate this high-handed outrage on the rights and liberties of the delegates that met at St. Louis last week, he will not hesitate to carry it out. The location of the national Democratic headquarters will be decided in a few days, Senator Jones, chairman of the committee, is expected here to-morrow or Friday. There is strong disposition at present to locate the headquarters here, and unless Senator Jones's trip to the West has changed his ideas on the subject, it seems reasonably certain that Washington will be selected. Although the location of headquarters at Washington would be an entirely new departure, there are many reasons, with the conditions which hedge about the campaign, which point to this city as that Marguerite had complained to her last the most available point from which to conduct the coming campaign. Comparatively little aid is expected from New York or Chicago. Besides, the committee of the had made complaint that Smith was at- Silver party has already selected Washington as headquarters and all the indications are that the Populist committee, with Senator Butler at its head, will also locate here. If the Democratic headquarters were located in this city the three committees could, to a certain extent, work in conjunc> the massing of their strength. Such fusion of electoral tickets as may be necessary to accomplish this result could also be more easily directed if the several committees were working side by side. But more important than all is the fact that Senator Gorman, whose long experience as a campaign manager, would make his services almost invaluable to the new committee, has agreed to give Senator Jones the benefit of his counsel and advice. He does not however, it is understood, desire any official connection with the committee, but if the headquarters are located here he will be constantly in close touch with the work as it progresses. Some of the local Democratic leaders have secured an option on the old Wormley Hotel as a place for the headquarters in case Washington is selected. It is expected that Senator Jones will announce the members of the execu-

for the East, over what route he will make the trip or how long he expects to be en route. It is known that Mr. Bryan is now for the East, over what route he will make the trip or how long he expects to be en preparing his speech of acceptance of the nomination. He expects, in his New York speech, to lay the ground-work for the campaign, and it is believed that up to the date of its delivery no man will learn from his lips just what he may be expected to do in relation to the Populist nomination. Possibly he may not even then declare himself, but it is believed that he will give some intimation of his plans in relation to the Populistic nomination. Further than the above announcement there was nothing given out from the Bryan home to-day for publication. There was an apparent luil in the tide of visitors. Chairman Lane, of the Silver party national committee, was at the Bryan home during the day. There was one party of visitors from Mississippi. There has been something of a decrease in the magnitude GREAT SPEECH OF HIS LIFE of Mr. Bryan's correspondence. RUSSIAN WRITER AND NEWSPAPER MAN KILLS HIMSELF IN JAIL.

Engaged to Marry a New York Heiress, but Arrested for Debt and Couldn't Stand Disgrace.

NEW YORK, July 29 .- Roman J. Zubof. laiming to be a journalist from Boston and a Russian count, committed suicide in a cell of a police station here to-day. Zubof, who was about twenty-five years old, was arrested as he was about to sail for Europe on board the American line steamer New York, the allegation being that the owed a hotel bill of $500. He pleaded with the complainant to withdraw the charge, as it was very important that he should go to Europe at once and he paid $250 on account. The officer who served the warrant would not listen to talk of compromise, saying the case was then out of the hotel keeper's hands and he took Zubof to the station, where he was locked up. Soon afterwards Zubof was found dead, having hanged himself with his pocket handkerchief. Zubof was a graduate of Trinity College, Dublin, and an accomplished linguist. He came to the United States about eight years ago and engaged in literary work. He wrote two books, "Mrs. Harry St. John" and "After the Manner of Men. both of which attracted much attention Latterly he had been employed on a Boston newspaper. At one time he was engaged in newspaper work in Philadelphia. An acquaintance who went to the police in response to a note written by Zubof did not arrive until the latter was dead. He said Zubof was engaged to marry the daughter of a New York banker said to be worth $20,000,000; that he was badly in debt and that this morning Zubof had procured $200 from him on a draft for $350 on George Harris, Philadelphia, but had said nothing of his intentions of going

BIG STEEL COMPANIES

Will Hold an Important Meeting in New York Friday.

NEW YORK, July 29 .- The Advertiser to-morrow will publish the following: The special meeting which has been called by the steel billet manufacturers, at the Holland House for Friday, promises some important developments. The reason why this special meeting is called at this time of the year is said to be on account of what is called by some of the smaller concerns interested as a discriminating allotment of business. It is claimed that the business that is being done in the steel billet line, according to the allotment, goes to the largest firms in the pool, who, by reason are enabled to reap the profit. It is stated also that threats of secession from the combination have been made, and that it is to consider a more equitable division of the work that the meeting has been called. The concerns to be represented at the meeting are: Carnegie Steel Company. Jones & Laughlin, Hainsworth Steel Company, Shoenberger & Co. Spang Steel and Iron Company, of Pittsburg; Cambridge Iron Company, of Johnstown; Bethlehem Iron Company, South Bethlehem; Illinois Steel Company, Chicago; Johnson Steel Company, Cleveland: Lackawanna and Steel Company, Scranton; Lickdale Iron Company, Lebanon; Wellman Steel Company, Thurlow, Pa.; Shenango Valley Steel Company, Neweastle; Maryland Steel Company, Sparrow Point; Riverside Iron Works, Wheeling: Wheeling Steel Works, Benwood; Ashland Steel Company, Ashand, Ky.; Ohio Steel Company, Youngstown; Bellaire Nail Works, Cleveland Rolling Mill Company, Junetion Iron and Steel Company, Mingo Junction; Gilbert. King & Warner Company, Columbus; Otis Steel Company, Cleveland; Springfield Iron Company, Chicago; Union Steel Company, Alexandria, Ind.; West Superior Iron and Steel Company, Colorado; Fuel and Iron Company, Pueblo, Col. The situation of affairs as described by a large dealer is that the steel billet trade has been much duller than was expected since the organization was made. It is due to this that the question of allotment

St. John Has Not Resigned. NORFOLK., Va., July 29 .- In reply to a query regarding the rumor that he had resigned as vice president and general manager of the Seaboard Air-line. Mr. St. John yesterday said: "The rumor is entirely tion for the union of the silver forces and without warrant and evidences the desperation of the great monopoly, the Southern railway, who are quite likely at the bottom of it. The holders of the securities of the lines comprising the Seaboard system are quite satisfied with the action of the officers of their system and will not assent to any proposition that would invalidate or reduce the material value of such securities a consolidation of their interests with the Southern which could have but that effect, nor will they consent to be 'held up' by the Southern whose purpose by creating an opposition line on the way has no other object than the destruction of its competitor and of all competition in the South. This and this only. The Seaboard Airline will endeavor to protect the people of the South in their efforts to maintain competition against a monopoly that would de-stroy it, and it calls for a halt on the further violation of law by the consolidation of additional lines and the restoration of lines unlawfully consolidated into its system. The people shall have all of the facts if necessary. I was advised a few days since that a rumor of this kind would be started, and further, that it had been discussed at the meeting of the Southern States Freight Association, held in Atlanta last week. It is in line with another statement which was made at the meeting that the Southern had been offered the control of the Seaboard Air-line. This is the first instance recorded where the Southern is known to have deined anything in the shape of a railroad. The people need not feel in the least dis-turbed by rumors of this nature. > Whether Mr. Hanna looked upon Mr. Gibbs, the New York man, as a personal representative of Mr. Platt or not, the fact is patent that Mr. Gibbs does represent that faction of the Republican party in New York, and, as Mr. Hanna said: "Mr. Platt was not invited to the meeting simply because he is not a member of the committee. Mr. Gibbs, the New York State national committeeman, was invited by me to attend so that he may be kept in touch with the plans that may be formulated. Mr. Gibbs is New York's national committeeman, and is responsible in a large measure, by virtue of his position, for the result in this State."

> Mr. Hanna added: "I feel confident that the Republican party in New York State will work harmoniously for McKinley's election."

> John Wanamaker, of Philadelphia, ex-President Harrison and Mr. Hanna met at the Fifth-avenue Hotel late last night. Mr. Hanna declined to go into details as to the questions discussed by the trio, but said: "Mr. Harrison will give us all the assistance we may require of him."

Frank S. Witherbee and a delegation representing the American Protective League to-day argued in favor of making the fight upon the tariff lines, while Melville E. Ingalls and others of the financial and corporation world, asked that the financial question be kept uppermost. It is entirely probable that Mr. Hanna's advice to the committee will be for working on both. Mr. Hanna said to-day: "The financial and tariff questions cannot, in my judgment be divorced. Our financial depression or prosperity is due in greatest measure to our tariff conditions. Mr. McKinley shares this view with me.' In carrying out this view Mr. Hanna suggested that the tariff leagues prosecute the fight vigorously on their own lines and that those interested in the financial questee giving assistance. It is planned that an immense amount of literature be dis tributed. The meeting of the executive committee took place at 3 o'clock to-day on themselves; if they conform to these at the Waldorf. Senator Quay was in consultation with Mr. Hanna for about an hour, but neither of the gentlemen named would say what the especial subject of their conversation was.

The nominee for Vice President, Garrett A. Hobart, arrived subsequently and was closeted with Mr. Hanna for some time. At the conclusion of the interview Mr. Hctart said: "I have told Mr. Hanna that I intend staying in New Jersey during the campaign, frequently coming over to New York headquarters. Mr. Gibbs, of New York, said that active work had already begun and there was in his mind little doubt that the State would give the largest Republican majority it had ever offered to any Republican candiate. Mr. Fessenden. of Connecticut, said that the silver sentiment in his State had no root and was not considered dangerous in any way. They expected to nominate Governor Cooke for Governor and his general popularity would assist in carrying the State. Senator Proctor was confident that his State would give a majority for the Republican ticket. Mr. Witherbee, of New York, spoke of making the tariff the paramount issue, but the debate drifted away from any decided expression of opinion upon this point. Ex-Governor Cheney, of New Hampshire, said | for literature to be used in the campaign. that he believed the common sense of the people of his State was asserting itself, and that the silver sentiment was already | quiries were for silver literature, the offigrowing weaker.
